

MC Ernst

As Special Risks Underwriting Manager, MC Ernst supervises both the Airline and Product Liability business lines for USAIG/CAIG, covering commercial airlines, major aerospace manufacturers, government contractors, space, horizontal products manufacturers and large contingent/financial institution programs. MC is entering her sixteenth year in the business, having begun her career in Lloyds of London with the Wattles Fellowship. Following her time in London with XL Aerospace, she relocated to New York where she moved to the brokerage side with Crystal & Company as an Account Executive, placing various lines of business including commercial airlines, government contractors, general aviation and major manufacturers. MC joined USAIG twelve years ago and has served in various roles prior to her current one, including Assistant GA Branch Manager and Airline Underwriting Manager. She holds an MBA in Risk Management and Insurance from St. John's University, is a Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriter, a Certified Aviation Insurance Professional, and is a graduate of Vanderbilt University. MC is a member of the Airline Study Group for the International Union of Aerospace Insurers, and proudly serves on the Board of the International Aviation Womens Association (IAWA) as their VP of Events. She lives in Darien, CT with her husband and three children.
