

Nicole Huque
Managing Director, Krauthamer & Associates
(K&A)

Nicole Huque is a principal in the Board & CEO practice at Krauthamer & Associates (K&A). She specializes in board director and executive placements within aviation, transportation, and logistics.

Since joining K&A in 2018, Nicole has been instrumental in senior executive and board hires throughout the Aviation and Aerospace sectors in North America, Europe, and Asia. Her clients include Fortune 100s, government agencies, start-ups, and PE portfolio companies. Previously she served as Head of Talent Acquisition for multi-billion-dollar divisions of B/E Aerospace and Coca-Cola and has built enterprise level recruiting operations in the Americas, EMEA and APAC regions.

Nicole holds a bachelor's in Psychology from the University of Waterloo in Canada, and an MBA with specializations in Finance and Marketing from Pace University - Lubin School of Business in New York. She serves as an ambassador for AIRLINK - a rapid response global humanitarian relief organization. In addition, she is a member of the Wings Club, International Aviation Womens Association (IAWA), and International Society of Transport Aircraft Trading (ISTAT).